The Palmyra-Macedon Rotary Club's Canaltown Crier

THE FOUR-WAY TEST

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

July 29 Club Assembly

- Kim Clement stated there are a few slots to be filled for the fair booth August 10-15. If you can work, please contact Kim ASAP.
- The Club is still collecting used ink jet cartridges and cell phones as a fundraiser. Collection boxes are located at Breen's market and the Palmyra Town Hall.
- Cindy Surline reported that preliminary results for RL Concessions indicate that total revenue will be down slightly from last year. She will give a final report as soon as final figures are available.
- The annual Eastern Cities Dinner will be held on Sunday, September 13. Watch for further details. If you are interested, please see President Dave for details.
- Anne Morrell announced that our new Foreign Exchange Student – Elena Vasquez from Argentina – will arrive in mid-August. Her initial host family will be Tim and Michelle Martinis. If you are interested in being a host family for the second and third periods, please contact Anne ASAP.
- President Dave provided each member with a Rotary events calendar for 2009-10 as well as a printed list of club officers and committee assignments. If you missed this week's meeting, please pick up a copy at your earliest convenience.
- Eric Chapman presented two Rotary banners that Diego left before going home to Mexico – one from his home club and the other from his home Rotary District.
- The next Board of Directors meeting will be held at the Palmyra Community Center on Thursday evening, August 6, at 6:30 p.m.

President Dave Pray and Eric Chapman holding the two Rotary banners Diego gave before going home to Mexico. Adios, Diego!

Happy Bucks and Confessions

- Pat VerPlank is a new “grandma,” again.
- Nancy Schrader is enjoying a visit from her daughter and grandson.
- Deb LeMoyne has been very busy this month. Her son and wife and two children have been visiting prior to their wedding on July 25. The bride's parents and family are also visiting from Argentina.
- Eric Chapman offered a happy buck for the safe return of Boy Scout Troop 96 from their recent trip to the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico. His son, Kyle, is ready to go again!
- Anne Morrell also donated a happy buck for her sister's recent wedding.
- Kim Clement had two happy bucks to celebrate the fact that both sons were home at the same time last week – Cody from the U.S. Coast Guard and Dan from Keuka College.
- Mary Courtney recently returned from a week long conference in Atlanta, Ga., where she was in training for her new teaching position with the Rochester city school district next year.
- Dianne Sloan enjoyed a “mini reunion” with four high school girlfriends last weekend.

Rotary Club News

- President Dave thanked Ralph Kommer, Cindy Surline, and Bob Yost for their outstanding leadership efforts, and all the dedicated workers who helped make this year's RL Concessions a great success.
- Fair Booth Manager Kim Clement was on hand to circulate the sign up sheet for worker shifts, August 10 – 15. Please plan on taking a shift, if possible.
- Joan Shaffer has Canaltown Days raffle tickets for all members. Every member is responsible for a minimum 10 books of tickets. If you have not yet received your tickets, contact Joan ASAP.
- Just a reminder – 2009–10 dues are due! If you have not yet paid, please take care of this.
- President Dave reminded Board members that the next Board of Directors will be held at the Palmyra Community Center on Thursday evening, August 6, at 6:30.
- Eric Chapman announced that the Macedon Partners Association, Inc. is seeking volunteers to help conduct a consumer survey on Main Street and at Wal-Mart during July and early August. Results of the survey will assist Macedon businesses in becoming more successful and improving the quality of retail and service opportunities available to local residents. If you would like to participate in this endeavor, see Eric for more information.
