- Leslie Vecchiotti spent Election Day with family in Binghamton, where her nephew is running for Mayor. Results are not known yet as absentee ballots are still being counted. Stay tuned....
- Dave Nagle offered a happy buck for President Dave Pray for his bid for election to Palmyra Town Supervisor Although Dave was not elected, he ran a fine campaign. Congratulations, Dave!

- Gary Hopkins also had a happy buck to celebrate his daughter's youth cheerleading team for their successful competition and for Pal-Mac sweeping the entire competition.
- Bob Yost confessed to three highlights this week. His daughter, Heather Dyer, will be dancing the lead role in The Performing Arts Ballet Company production of Tchaikovsky's The Nutcracker at the Smith Opera House in Geneva on December 5 and 6. (See Bob if you are interested in tickets.) Last week, Bob flew to San Diego for his son's, Nathan's, graduation from U.S. Marine Corps Basic Training. Nate now moves to Camp Pendleton, Calif., for two months of additional training, and then will go Camp LeJeune, N.C., where he will undergo schooling for his MOS (Military Occupation Specialty). Finally, Bob offered a happy buck for his recent "best-ever" catch of a 42-inch King Salmon. Way to go, Bob!
- Gene Bassage offered a pair of happy bucks for the recent success of both the Pal-Mac boys' and girls' varsity soccer teams. Both teams have advanced to the finals of their respective Section V, Class BB championships, which will be played on November 6.
- John Denniston also contributed a happy buck to celebrate the engagement this weekend of his daughter, Nicole. A fall wedding is planned.
