March 31: Connie Sullivan of the United Way

March 10: Gabrielle Soybring, V.I.S.T.A. Volunteer – American Red Cross

Our speaker was Gabrielle Soybring, who is a V.I.S.T.A Volunteer for the American Red Cross. Since Wayne County is so rural, much of the county can be separated from each other during times of disaster, as in the ice storm of 2003. V.I.S.T.A. is looking for already-existing, cohesive groups that are willing to be trained in Red Cross Sheltering.

These newly trained groups would be equipped to run a predetermined shelter for up to 48 hours until the Red Cross could arrive to take over if needed. V.I.S.T.A. would ask for a commitment from a group of at least five who can take a two-hour course to prepare them in case there is a disaster.

Gabrielle also pointed out that there are many other areas in which to volunteer through the Red Cross. If you're interested, fill out an American Red Cross volunteer form.
