- Cheryl Ford spent a week in Ocean City, where she saw the wild horses and highly suggested going to see them. She also confessed to be late because of being on a conference call where she learned that ground will be broken in October for the new bank site.
- Dick Kirchoff won $50 in gas, and his daughter graduated from nursing school.
- Arnie Pechler gave three happy bucks for catching three wall-eyes with his granddaughter, and a pike, which was bigger than the fish his granddaughter caught, which he noted doesn't happen often anymore.
- Leslie Vecchiotti's daughter Juliana passed her driver test. She will also be the Vice President for Roteract next year.
- Anne Morrell also kicked in a buck for Juliana being the next VP of Roteract.
- Eric Chapman went to Watkins Glen, where he went on a 10-mile hike with son Kyle!
- Visiting Rotarian Ray Warrick had a happy buck for Jim Bilotta becoming a Rotarian soon.
- Debbie LeMoynes informed everyone that Craig did in fact forget their anniversary. She was going to spring it on him at dinner that night, but their daughter sent them flowers and foiled her plans.
